

MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CIVIL SERVICE JOB SPECIFICATION

CONSERVATION OFFICER

JOB DESCRIPTION

Employees in this job are responsible for the enforcement of laws and rules protecting the public health and regulating the conservation and use of the natural resources of the state. Conservation Officers are peace officers and are also empowered to enforce general criminal laws of the state and enforce the motor vehicle code, drug laws, criminal sexual misconduct laws, etc.

There are five classification levels in this job.

Position Code Title – Conservation Officer (Recruit)-E

Conservation Officer (Recruit) 10

This is the recruit level Conservation Officer, assigned to a mandatory Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards (MCOLES) basic police school. The recruit, in a classroom setting, receives training in basic law, criminal justice system procedures and other training generic to and required for all fully certified law enforcement officers in Michigan. The recruit must satisfactorily pass the recruit school in order to qualify as a fully certified law enforcement officer in Michigan.

Position Code Title – Conservation Officer-E

Conservation Officer 10

This is the trainee level. During the one-year probationary period, the new officer will receive formal training by attending school to learn conservation officer specific laws, rules and procedures, and other necessary resource and operational training. The remainder of the one-year period is spent on the job and under the supervision and evaluation of a senior field-training officer (and the Training Section for positions located in the Department of Natural Resources). The employee learns and develops the knowledge and abilities required to function as a conservation officer. Successful completion of the field evaluation process, passing of formal training examinations, and meeting physical standards are mandatory for continuation of employment beyond the one-year probationary period.

Conservation Officer E11

This is the experienced level. The employee performs a full range of duties associated with enforcing the laws and rules regulating the use of the natural resources of the state. Typically, the employee is assigned to an area of the state and independently patrols the area to prevent law violations; investigates complaints of law violations; and provides a variety of public service to users of natural resources and the general public. Work is typically performed under the direction of the area supervisor, but the officer must routinely exercise extensive independent judgment in making decisions and taking immediate actions without the availability of supervision or direction.

Position Code Title – Conservation Officer-A

Conservation Officer 12

This is the advanced level. The employee performs specialized natural resources law enforcement activities. Additional technical or specialty knowledge is required which must be acquired through formal education or training or extensive on-the-job training. Most advanced level officers have full-time responsibility for conducting complex criminal investigations of violations of state and federal environmental protection laws or of large scale illegal fish and game operations.

Position Code Title – Conservation Officer-SS

Conservation Officer 13

This is the staff specialist level. The employee uses specialized knowledge in performing complex natural resources law enforcement activities. Staff specialist positions have sole and full-time responsibility for an assigned program area and are recognized through approval by Civil Service.

NOTE: Employees generally progress through this series to the experienced-level based on satisfactory performance and possession of the required experience.
